

Call for Papers

Journal of Islam in Asia

YEAR 2008

The prospective authors are invited to submit their manuscripts to this Journal.

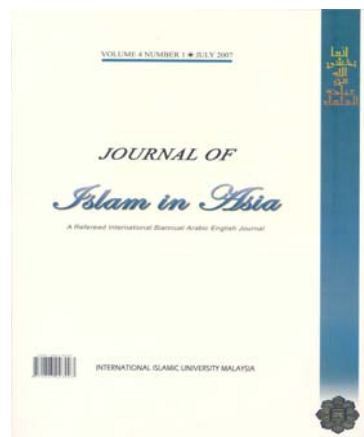

Background

The Journal of Islam in Asia is published by International Islamic University Malaysia. It is a refereed international Arabic-English biannual publication. The journal publishes articles, book reviews and conference reports which are relevant to Islamic thought and Muslim concerns. The journal sees itself as an instrument, and an extension, for promoting IIUM's mission of IIICE: Integration, Islamization, Internationalization and Comprehensive Excellence. The Editorial Board invites scholars and researchers to submit contributions to the journal's General Editor at the address given below

Areas & Scope

The journal publishes articles and studies in the following areas:

- Islamic Revealed Knowledge and Heritage (the focus should be on practical issues and problems related to the subject).
- Studies related to integration of knowledge and Islamization.
- Issues and affairs related to Islam and Muslims in Asia.
- Methods of Ijtihad and practical dimensions of Islam in the modern time: methodology and critique.
